

October 2, 2009

For Immediate Release

Tourism Calgary appoints Peter Wallis as new Board of Director
Industry Representative, Visitor Experience and Transportation

(Calgary, Alberta) – Tourism Calgary is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Wallis to the organization's newly assembled Board of Directors, as an industry representative of transportation and visitor experience.

"As Tourism Calgary's new Chairman, I'm thrilled to welcome Peter Wallis onto our Board of Directors; not only because of his vast knowledge of the industry, but also because of the respect he's fostered from everyone in it," said George Brookman, Chairman of Tourism Calgary's Board of Directors. "Peter's broad-based understanding of the transportation sector will be an asset to the organization as we move forward, with our sights set on bringing the world to Calgary."

As the current President & CEO of The Van Horne Institute for International Transportation and Regulatory Affairs, Wallis brings with him a wealth of knowledge and expertise in the tourism industry. He sits on several Boards, including that of the Calgary Airport Council and the Calgary International Film Festival. Wallis is an accomplished and welcome addition to the new Board.

– 30 –

About Tourism Calgary:

Tourism Calgary is a not-for-profit, membership based organization specializing in the marketing and promotion of Calgary and area as the destination of choice for leisure and business travel. For over 50 years Tourism Calgary has been the only organization dedicated to this purpose, and has grown to include a network of over 500 businesses from city attractions and accommodations to arts and entertainment venues and transportation outlets.

For more information, please contact:

Sonya Koson
Communications Specialist
Office: 403-750-2380
sonyak@tourismcalgary.com