RAILYARD BREWING

SUN 12PM - 6PM

From the railways that settled the west, to the rail yards of Alberta that built the province they call home, Railyard pays homage to Alberta's rich grain-train history and the rogue graffiti art on its carriages. They are laying their favourite beer down the tracks, and the best way to find out what they did with 50,000 ft. of rope is to make a stop at their station in the NE of Calgary.

TOOL SHED BREWING CO.

#9, 801 - 30 St. NE / 403.775.1749 / ToolShedBrewing.com
f/ToolShedBrewing @ToolShedBeer @toolshedbeer

MON - WED 1PM - 9PM / THU - SAT 12PM - 10PM / SUN 12PM - 6PM

The story of Tool Shed Brewing Company began in the city of Kabul, Afghanistan. That's where company founders Graham Sherman and Jeff Orr met while performing IT work for government and military networks. When the two returned to Canada, they began meeting at Graham's place and brewing small batches of home brew in his tool shed. Keen to stay true to their roots, they opened Tool Shed Brewing Company in 2012. A thirst for innovation has driven them to develop truly unique beers. Not interested in the status quo, they have developed many one-of-a-kind craft beers.

ZERO ISSUE BREWING

4210 - 12 St. SE / 587.885.1193 / ZeroIssueBeer.com

WED - THU 3PM - 8PM / FRI 3PM - 10PM / SAT 12PM - 10PM / SUN 12PM - 6PM

Brothers Kirk and Mark McDonald grew up loving comic books, science fiction and video games. They have merged their childhood passions with their adult passion for making (and drinking) incredible beer, creating a brewery that celebrates the nerdier side of life. Zero Issue is home to Alberta's first foeder (a large oak barrel), which is used for aging sour beers. Their art is comic book based, their beer names are sci-fi and when you come into their taproom they'll put down the PS4 and serve you a pint of delicious beer.

ANNEX ALE PROJECT

4323 - 1 St. SE / 403.475.4412 / AnnexAles.com
f/annexales @annexales @annexales

THU 3PM - 10PM / FRI 3PM - 11PM / SAT 12PM - 11PM / SUN 12PM - 5PM

Erica and Andrew built Annex Ale Project knowing they could make a contribution to beer culture in Calgary. It's pretty simple - they love what craft brewers are doing with barley, hops, Rocky Mountain glacier fed water and hard work, and needed a space to make their own humble, yet stoutly idiosyncratic contribution. Their taproom attests to their focus: good beer; good people; no distractions. Without compromise and without apology, Annex is about making progressive beer and sharing a glass with good people.
